Highlights Q1 2025

Under the BeIntelli project, an automated MAN eBus started to operate on the streets of Berlin's city center to demonstrate the functionalities of autonomous public transport

Scania has received the largest order from the Swedish defense administration since the 1980's; the new vehicles will be delivered in 2025-2027

Captive Financing now also available for VWTB and MAN customers in Mexico; TFS also implements MAN financial services businesses as planned in France and Italy

BOOK-TO-BILL RATIO SLIGHTLY ABOVE 1 AMID MIXED MARKET DYNAMICS ...

Europe:

- Unit sales lower QoQ and YoY due to still declining truck markets with lower registrations
- In contrast, increasing QoQ and YoY truck order intake with a truck b-t-b of 1.3, but still too early to declare a turnaround

North America:

- Truck unit sales down in a declining market; bus sales significantly up compared to Q1 2024 with delayed ramp-up of new school bus model
- Incoming orders decreased due to reduced transportation activities, and customer hesitation/uncertainties about import tariffs, US economy and EPA 2027 emission regulations

South America:

- Unit sales up and incoming orders down in a solid market; Brazil with declining order momentum, Argentina with strong demand

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE & OUTLOOK

SLOW START FOR UNIT SALES AND REVENUES IN WEAK EUROPEAN AND NORTH AMERICAN MARKETS

— Lower Q1 unit sales, driven by:

- Declining European truck markets impacting MAN and Scania
- Declining US-market and introduction of Euro VI for trucks in Mexico impacting International, but bus sales significantly up
- Still growing Brazilian market with positive impact on VWTB

— Q1 sales revenue decline, impacted by:

- Lower unit sales
- Partly compensated by Vehicle Services business

VOLUME AND ADDITIONAL COST EFFECTS LEADING TO LOWER Q1 MARGIN PERFORMANCE ...

Decreased adj. RoS YoY due to:

- Negative volume effects at Scania, MAN and International ...
- ... only partially offset by strong Brazilian business at VWTB.
- Higher R&D costs
- China project costs
- Foreign currency headwinds

SLOW START IN 2025 ALSO AFFECTS CASH FLOW AND NET DEBT

- Net debt of TRATON Operations incl. Corporate Items increased by €282m vs. year-end 2024 mainly due to:
  - Gross cash flow impacted by lower operating performance
  - Working capital build-up of €0.5bn, mainly driven by increased inventories of €0.4bn
  - Investing cash flow, mainly driven by capex of €0.3bn and capitalized R&D €0.2bn
